

Project EGURALT's closing event in Pamplona (24.02)

This event is open to any organisation interested in mid- and high-rise timber construction.

The partners of the European EGURALT project, including Xylofutur and ENSAP <http://www.bordeaux.archi.fr/>, are organising their closing seminar on the morning of 24 February in the Citadel's Hall of Arms in Pamplona.

The members of the EGURALT network who have signed the declaration of intent are more than welcome to join.

About the event

This seminar will include the presentation of the project's results: technical data sheets for mid- and high-rise timber constructions in the Sudoe area, experiments carried out in the three countries, integration of sustainable and environmental criteria in public procurement for the construction of social housing, campaign to promote timber in the construction sector, etc.

3 round tables will be held:

- Timber building development
- New timber solutions
- Sensibilisation and awareness

A simultaneous translation in English will be provided.

About the project

Funded under the INTERREG Sudoe cross-border cooperation programme, EGURALT aims to implement and promote innovations in multi-storey timber construction.
